

If you feel unsafe because of the way you are being treated by someone, for any reason, you should report it.

You can call Police Scotland on 101 if not urgent, or 999 if you feel your life is in danger. You can ask for a translator if you need one.

Please don't be afraid to report a crime.

You can also report some crimes online using our website:
<https://scotland.police.uk>.

In Scotland, we don't tolerate hate. If you have been a victim of hate, you are entitled to support. More information is on our website:
<https://www.scotland.police.uk/advice-and-information/hate-crime/get-support/>.

Police officers in Scotland carry individual warrant cards (identification) and you can ask to see this to make sure someone is a police officer.

Police Scotland is not the Home Office. Police officers will listen to you and help ensure you are safe.

Only police officers working in armed policing carry guns. These officers are specialist and are highly trained.

Police Scotland are here to help keep you safe.

Translated by Anna Yule